

ACJS Student Poster Presentation Awards

The deadline for nominations is December 1, 2026.

Nominations sent to: Katherine Johnson, kjohnson@uwf.edu

Copy nomination to: Kimberly Dodson, dodsonk@uhcl.edu

The ACJS Student Poster Presentation Awards recognize students who authored outstanding poster presentations at the Annual Meeting and to encourage students' active participation in the Annual Meeting.

Eligibility criteria: To be eligible for an award, the applicant must:

1. Be enrolled in a graduate or undergraduate program at the time of submission of their application. In cases of multiple co-authors, all co-authors must be students at the time of the application.
2. Submit the poster abstract before the ACJS final abstract submission deadline.
3. Display their poster at the upcoming Annual Meeting Research and Pictorial Showcase.
4. Submit a 3–5-minute pre-recorded video presentation of their poster. The poster should include research questions, methodology, data, results, and implications.

Nomination requirements:

1. Self-nominations by applicants are allowed.
2. The applicants do not need to be ACJS members at the time of application.
3. Poster presentations should not be co-authored by faculty.

The subcommittee for this award shall evaluate submissions on the basis of research originality, scientific rigor, and visual appeal of the poster. Only nominations that meet the eligibility criteria and nomination requirements will be considered for the award.

The first-place award recipient will receive an award of $500. The second-place award recipient will receive an award of $300. The third-place award recipient will receive an award of $200. If a panel presentation receiving the award is co-authored, the amount of the award will be shared equally among all co-authors.
